JUNE 28, 1963

NEWS

CARLOS MARQUEZ

Ex-Consul Of Cuba Dies In Caracas

Carlos Marquez, former Cuban consul general here until his retirement in 1959 on the rise of Fidel Castro, died yesterday at Caracas, Venezuela, He was 62.

Mr. Marquez went to Venezuela in February for an operation and was convalescing when stricken by another illness.

Funeral services will be conducted in Venezuela.

Mr. Marquez served the Cuban government here for more than 25 years as consul and later as consul general.

Previously, he had been a member of the Cuban delegation to the League of Nations at Geneva, Switzerland, and had served as secretary in the Cuban embassy in Switzerland.

He was a graduate of the University of Havana.

Surviving include the wife, the former Isabel [illegible]; two daughters, Mrs. Isabel Marquez Perdomo of New Orleans, and Mrs. Lenor Marquez Sucre of Caracas, and seven grandchildren.